View Your Child's T1 Award Photos Online!

Go to www.davincitree.academy/awardgallery. Use the password “awards” to get in. We password protect pages such as this to keep web crawlers from indexing or strangers from accidentally gaining access to our kids high resolution photos. The page will be up for several months. Photos are posted in full resolution form but have their dimensions scaled down to fit on the page. You must right click to download or view in a separate window at full size.

Big Grade Update Coming to Infinite Campus

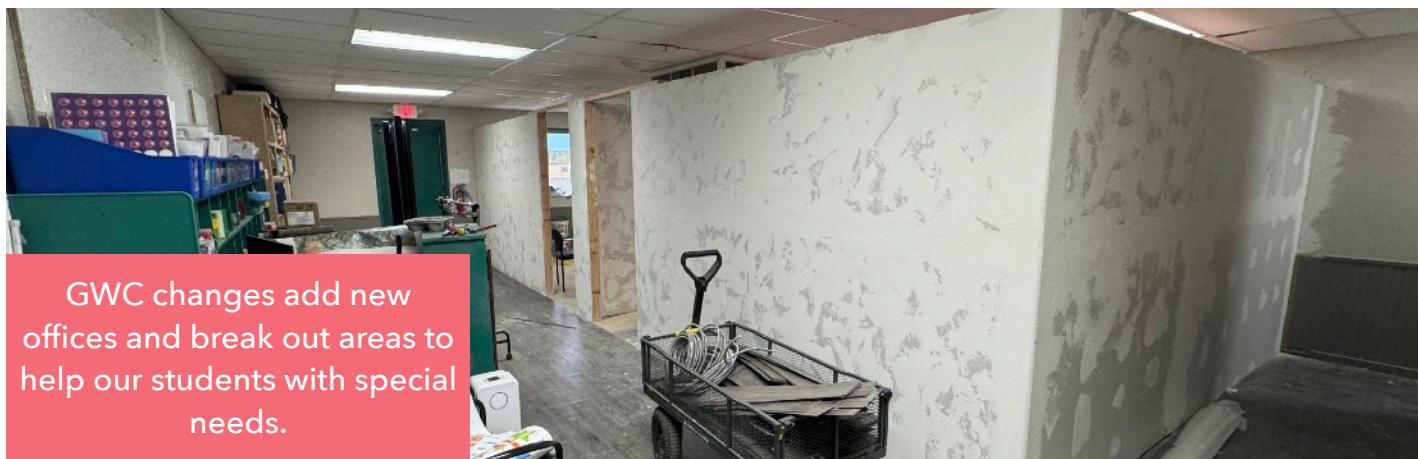

All of our students' grades will be going up or down with the addition of the Exact Path Trophy Challenge in the next seven days. Make sure your kids are getting their trophies done!

Get Re-Enrollment Applications In!

We will be putting the 2024-2025 enrollment applications online next week. It is always during this time when we get a rush of new enrollments from new families. We still have around 50 students who haven't re-enrolled for next year and we are already 80% full. Please be sure to get your students' re-enrollment in if you plan on returning next year! We will continue our enrollment raffles to remind students to get their applications in.

January Menus for Breakfast and Lunch

The menus for breakfast and lunch for the month of January are on the last two pages of this newsletter.

GWC changes add new offices and break out areas to help our students with special needs.

Hide and Go Seek Postponed Due to Construction

Our Exceptional Student Services Department (formerly known as Special Education) requested changes to our Resource Room in the GWC building to help our kiddos with special needs focus and learn more effectively. We gladly agreed to all the changes which involve creating new spaces, but the construction is taking longer than we anticipated.

The GWC Building will be ready for school to resume on Monday, but the construction in-progress makes it a poor place to play Hide and Seek. We are considering Saturday the 20th of January as a prospective date for our perfect attendance and honor roll students to play. Thank you all for your understanding and patience!

School Begins Again Monday

Don't forget, school starts again on January 8th! Happy New Year everyone!
